

chance to work, much less get a vacation. So I hurried over the Twenty-third Street ferry and inquired my way to the Kaiser Wilhelm.

Wanted Revenge.
My wrongs had proved more than I thought I could bear. Over and over I sized up my hard station in life and concluded it with that of some other man—of Mayor Gaynor, who had wronged me, in particular. At length I determined to seek the revenge which I concluded should be fairly mine.

"And I heard of President McKinley's assassination. Of course, and I believe assassination is sometimes right. I had carried the gun for nine years. I feared the enemies I had made by writing letters when I was trying to reform the Dock Department."

There is a malignant as an animation among the New Jersey authorities to make Gallagher an example of "quick Jersey justice," but it was definitely determined to-night not to lay his case before the grand jury pending the outcome of the Mayor's injuries. If the Mayor recovers, Gallagher will be quickly tried, charged with assault with intent to kill, for which he may receive a maximum sentence of twenty years. If his victim should die, the charges will be murder in the first degree, the penalty for which is death.

For a man who so narrowly escaped instant death by an assassin's bullet, Mayor Gaynor spent a cheerful day. With the ever present possibility of blood poisoning, the anxiety of those near his bedside remains tense, but every bulletin of the day concerning his condition was optimistic in tone. He conversed cheerfully with those who saw him and pleaded with his wife and physicians to allow him a slice or two of bacon, for which he has a great fondness.

Mitchell Is Hopeful.
John Purvay Mitchell, acting Mayor, who visited the sick room to-day, gave one of the best descriptions yet obtained of the Mayor's condition, at least in Mitchell's opinion.

"While it would be extreme," he said, "to say that the Mayor is out of danger, I regard his recovery, from what I have learned, as assured. He talks as plainly as any man, although he has a slight hoarseness. There is a sort of rattle in his throat, and he keeps putting his hand to his throat as if irritation existed there. In the course of our talk, I remarked that the shooting was one of the most surprising of incidents. The Mayor answered: 'Don't let me talk about it. I don't like to talk about it. We have to take what comes to us. I am satisfied.'"

The Manchester baseball team suffered defeat at the hands of that team by the score of 8 to 4, the game being called at the end of the seventh inning on account of darkness. William A. Simpson, the star pitcher of the North End Peninsula League team, broke his arm while in the act of delivering the ball in the fourth inning. The pitcher collapsed, and physicians say that the accident will not be serious.

HOSPITAL BOARD HOLDS MEETING

Total of 1,450 Patients Now in Central State Institution.

TWO PROMINENT VISITORS

Chamber of Commerce Gets Charter to Extend Sphere of Service.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
108 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., August 10.

The special board of directors of the Central State Hospital held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at that institution for the auditing of accounts and the transaction of routine business. The report of Superintendent Dr. Drewry, showing a total of 1,450 patients at the hospital, and no insane persons in any of the jails of the State.

Persons adjudged insane and committed to the hospital are always promptly sent for and not allowed to remain in the jails. Dr. Drewry has had as his guests for several days two eminent experts from Maryland—Dr. Arthur P. Herring, secretary of Lunacy Commission of that State, and Dr. Walter Winterode, the superintendent-elect of the new hospital provided for by the Legislature. They are seeking information that may be of service in the construction and management of the new Maryland hospital.

Chamber of Commerce.
The establishment of a bureau of credits and of a bureau for the collection and classification of data and statistics are important purposes of the charter obtained by the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber under its organization of the past few years has proved a valuable agency in promoting the interests of the city and vicinity and has been of great benefit to the commercial interest of the community. Its present officers are T. F. Heath, president; Bartlett Roper, first vice-president; G. C. Wright, second vice-president; R. Gordon Finney, secretary and treasurer.

The directors, to be known as governors, who are to manage the affairs of the chamber, are T. F. Heath, Bartlett Roper, G. C. Wright, William E. Poole, Edward Eganbrun, Ashton W. Gray, Robert Cabanis, H. S. Seward and R. H. Mann, all men of prominence and large business experience.

Personal Intelligence.
Congressman Robert Turnbull, who expected to attend the Farmers' Institute at this city, was prevented from doing so by sickness.

Great regret was also expressed that Dr. S. A. Knapp, of Washington, head of the farm demonstration work, United States Department of Agriculture, and Superintendent of Public Instruction Eggleston, who were on the program for formal addresses, were unable to attend the institute on account of sickness.

Dr. George H. Reese, of Franklin County, has been appointed a member of the medical staff of the Central State Hospital to fill a vacancy.

Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Francis have returned home after a six weeks' visit to the Hot Springs, in Arkansas.

Miscellaneous News.
Since August 1 up to date there have been only two deaths among the whites in Petersburg. There are several cases of fever in the city.

The State Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Cockade City Athletic Corporation, with a capital stock of from $500 to $25,000. The incorporators are W. J. Moore, president; R. Gordon Finney, secretary-treasurer, and J. J. Grim.

The trial of Albert Walker for murderously assaulting and robbing John W. Goodwin, colored, on the highway, is set for to-morrow in the Hustings Court.

The first half of city taxes for the year being payable to-day without penalty, the city treasury will be enriched by some $75,000 or $80,000. Many people are paying their taxes in full.

Mosby's Men Will Meet Veterans to Have Their Annual Reunion at Herndon.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, D. C., August 10.—Surviving members of the Forty-third Virginia Battalion of Cavalry, Confederate States Army, known throughout the country as "Mosby's men" have been called by Colonel William H. Chapman to assemble Saturday, September 10, at Herndon, Fairfax county, Va. Although many survivors reside at points far distant, all make every sacrifice to attend the annual fraternal gatherings. It is expected that Colonel Mosby will be present.

Taft Is Indorsed.
Dallas, Tex., August 10.—Republicans of Texas to-day adopted resolutions indorsing the administration of President Taft and refrained from making any mention of former President Roosevelt either in their platform or resolutions. The following nominations for officers were made: For Governor, J. C. Terrell, of San Antonio.

For Lieutenant-Governor, C. W. Ogden, of San Antonio.

For Associate Justice of Supreme Court, J. G. McGrady, of Fannin county.

A resolution was adopted declaring that State Chairman Cecil A. Lyon shall not recommend for Federal offices any member of a State or county committee.

ty executive committee. Mr. Lyons was unanimously elected State chairman.

The platform deploras what it terms radical legislation hampering the growth of the State, and bespeaks a more liberal policy towards outside capital.

MOREHEAD NAMED STATE CHAIRMAN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Greensboro, N. C., August 10.—The State Republican Convention here to-day, after an all-day session fighting over party government, practically collapsed at 7 o'clock this evening, when all candidates against John M. Morehead, Congressman from this district, were withdrawn, and his election as chairman of the State Executive Committee was made by acclamation. Duncan and Alexander saw the cause was hopeless after the convention took on the permanent chairmanship, when ex-Judge Ewart was defeated by Thomas Settle for chairman, 2 to 1.

The vote was not taken until full speeches were made by partisans for Duncan and Morehead. Harry Skinner, ex-district attorney, was preferred as non-official holder who championed Morehead, and defended President Taft. Replying to taunts from other speakers, he declared that the President was actuated to appoint a Democrat as judge of the Federal court of the Eastern district.

Mr. Morehead's speech of acceptance breathed an intensely progressive and eminently fair spirit. The keynote of his campaign has been the abolition of the Federal reserve system, which the Republican party has been opposed with reference to Federal appointments, and that idea was emphasized in his speech of acceptance.

The convention also indorsed and heavily recommended the administration of the retiring State chairman, ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, a ringing resolution of thanks for his faithfulness and fairness and eminent services being unanimously adopted.

Morehead Named.
The State ticket named is: Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, T. T. Hicks; Associate Justices, Harry Skinner, of Greensboro, and W. T. Timblake, of Wake Forest; Corporation Commissioner, G. M. Hoover, of Thomasville, and J. H. White, of Madison.

The platform, which was unanimously adopted, indorsed the administration of President Taft and measures passed by Congress at the last session, the monetary commission and the tariff commission.

A plank declaring for free text books for local public schools and declaring for the local self-government went through with a whoop. The action relative to the self-government means a re-opening of the prohibition question in North Carolina, which was voted dry two years ago.

POLICE POWERS GRANTED BOARD

Mayor Richardson Will Probably Sign to-day the ordinance adopted by both branches of the City Council conferring police power on members of the Board of Police Commissioners.

The ordinance was readily passed by the lower branch of the council on Tuesday night by the Board of Aldermen, the opposition in that branch having been withdrawn.

Mayor Richardson is ex-officio president of the Board of Police Commissioners, and is a voting member. The police force is under his immediate control, and it is within his power to suspend any officer. It is understood that he favors the ordinance conferring police power on police commissioners, and it is expected that he will sign the act.

Until a recent incident in which a police commissioner was involved in the arrest of a man who had attempted to stab a City Councilman, the question of the authority of police commissioners had not been doubted, and had never been challenged. But after that arrest the question was raised, and, as a result, the police commissioners, after an adverse opinion by City Attorney Pollard, turned in their free pass books to the Mayor.

He did add, however, that he was talking about conservation with his former forester, who worked out the conservation policy with him when they were both in Washington. Mr. Pinchot would make a report on political conditions in the far West as he observed them on his recent trip.

Mr. Loeb's visit, Colonel Roosevelt said, he could not discuss, beyond saying that they talked over the old politics and four-fifths other things, mainly about old times.

NAVAL COLLIER SUNK IN OCEAN

Norfolk, Va., August 10.—The Virginian-Pilot to-morrow morning will say:

With every man aboard of her saved, as far as could be ascertained, the naval collier Marcellus lies at the bottom of the ocean in latitude 36, longitude 14.08, sinking ten hours after she was struck by the Norwegian fruit steamer Rosario de Giorgio.

The collier Leonidas arrived off Sewalls Point tonight with the crew of the Marcellus aboard, also bringing four barges, two of which she towed out of Delaware breakwater last Monday, and the two that the Marcellus had in tow for the naval station at Guantanamo, Cuba.

Captain Carver of the Marcellus, who came to Norfolk, filed a report of the disaster with the Navy Department and afterward reported to Admiral Marshall, commander of the Navy Yard. Captain Carver is stopping at the Victoria Hotel, but he left word that he would see no newspaper men, preferring that the Navy Department receive his report first. Captain Carver is a merchant captain. The crew of the Marcellus are merchant seamen.

When Captain Carver stepped into the Weather Bureau office at Cape Henry to file his first report he stated that the Giorgio struck his vessel like a brick and that the Marcellus was struck a stinging blow.

From the cruiser fleet in the roads the following was received at the wireless station at the Navy Yard to-night:

"230 A. M., Tuesday, August 9. Marcellus was struck by Giorgio. Remained afloat until 12:55 P. M. same day. No official report of the disaster as yet, but will be filed Thursday morning."

OBITUARY

Mrs. William Russell Robinson.
A telegram yesterday announced the death of Mrs. William Russell Robinson, of Norfolk, at her country place in Nelson county.

For some months Mrs. Robinson had been ill, but at the last she came as a great shock to her friends.

From her school girl days she had been closely identified with Richmond. In 1864 she married Mr. Robinson, then in the Confederate army. Both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were the souls of hospitality, and no social function was complete without them. Their social and beautiful presence. The social side was only a part of her large and generous nature. She was eager in all charitable work, public and private, and was one of the organizers of the City Mission, to which she gave her best work while living here. About fifteen years ago Mr. Robinson bought "Colleton," an old Cabel estate, which became their permanent home. Mrs. Robinson occupied a large part of her winters in Richmond.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER, POISON OAK, ETC.

Eczema, Acne, Tetters, Poison Oak, Pimples, etc., show that some unhealthy humor or acid impurity is diseasing and corrupting the circulation, so that instead of supplying nourishment and strength to the skin, it is continually pouring out its acid and unhealthy accumulations. Salves, washes, lotions, and other external applications, may relieve some of the itching and other discomforts caused by skin diseases, but such treatment has no effect on the blood, where the seat of irritation lies, and therefore cannot cure. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the one and only cure for skin diseases, every particle of the cause must be driven from the circulation. S. S. S. is the best and quickest remedy, because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation and removes every particle of humor, whether it be an infection of poisonous plants, or from other causes, and makes the blood stream pure, rich and healthy, and
